History

Waddington, located just 5 miles south of Lincoln, is a village rich in history and charm. The Viking Way, which passes through Waddington, serves as a reminder of the ancient Celts who farmed the cliff tops west of Roman Ermine Street over 1,500 years ago, before being overtaken by Viking warriors.

This historic village, recorded in the Domesday Book of 1086, was primarily an agricultural community until the late 19th century. In its earlier days, Waddington was also known for horse racing on the heathland, which is part of the RAF station, now famously home to the Red Arrows.

Community

The area offers a vibrant community with something for everyone! For aspiring actors, the local dramatic society is perfect for honing your theatrical skills. If you enjoy staying active, join one of the walking or running clubs based at One NK where you can also swim or use the gym.

Amenities

Situated in the Lower Waddington area of Lincoln, this location offers convenient access to a range of local amenities. Less than 2 miles away you will find a local store, various takeaways, cafes, hairdressers, and a barber.

Transport

Heath View residents can enjoy easy access to transportation options for convenient commuting. A regular bus service to the city centre runs frequently, offering reliable transportation. Alternatively, if you prefer driving, the city centre is just 15-minute drive away.
