

The Swift

ONE
at Charterholme

Sarah Swift (1854 - 1937) founder of the College of Nursing in 1916, which later became the Royal College of Nursing (RCN) in 1939. Sarah retired from nursing when World War I began but returned to serve as the matron-in-chief of the Nursing Division of the Joint War Committee.

Step into this 2 bedroom terraced home, where style meets functionality.

The sleek kitchen, complete with a cloakroom, leads to a spacious lounge with a dedicated dining area and patio doors opening onto the rear garden.

Upstairs, you'll find a bright master bedroom alongside a second bedroom, both sharing a well-appointed family bathroom with a convenient shower over the bath.
